

World Trade Club Dinner Program on May 16th Doing Business in Mexico – Stories & Strategies for Effective Business Interactions

Come and enjoy a fun-filled evening to learn how to effectively do business in Mexico at Seattle's Galerias Restaurant and Bar.

The program will include an expert panel discussion on "Doing Business in Mexico", remarks by the Consul of Mexico and entertainment from a local dance group. This will be a great opportunity to mix a little business with the rich artistic culture of Mexico. The expert panel will give you strategies and stories of what to do (or what not to do) when doing business in Mexico from two perspectives – Americans doing business with Mexicans and Mexicans doing business with Americans.

Panel: Doing Business in Mexico – Stories & Strategies for Effective Business Interactions

Luis Navarro, President, US-Mexico Chamber of Commerce – NW Chapter

Angela Molgaard, Director International Credit, Microsoft Corp

David Spencer, NAFTA Business Attorney

Where: Galerias Restaurant & Bar (website: <http://www.galeriasgourmet.net/>)
611 Broadway E. Seattle, WA 98102; (206) 322-5757

Date/Time: Wednesday, May 16th, 5:30- 8:00pm

Cost: $45 for World Trade Club members and sponsoring organizations /$55 for non-members
Includes dinner and business program.

Registration: Visit World Trade Club's website: www.worldtradeclub.net, email info@worldtradeclub.net, or call (206) 686-3736. Registration deadline is Friday, May 11th.

Sponsoring Partners include: U.S.-Mexico Chamber of Commerce

Co-sponsors include: Washington State Department of Community, Trade & Economic Development \(CTED\)