

WORLD TRADE CLUB

Providing Educational and Networking Opportunities for International Business Professionals

Navigating NAFTA Compliance Seminar

Date: February 27, 2007, 7:30 - 9:30 AM

Come hear from a panel of experts about the requirements of trading with NAFTA countries. This seminar is designed to provide a technical overview of NAFTA as well as practical advice and recommendations on how to implement a compliant NAFTA program. Attendees should walk away with an understanding of the Rules of Origin and how to maintain the proper documentation to take advantage of the reduced tariffs under NAFTA. Topics covered include:

- NAFTA Rules of Origin to determine if your products qualify for NAFTA
- Entering products into the U.S. or Canada under NAFTA
- Country of origin marking rules
- Record-keeping requirements

Panelists include:

- Todd Smith, Senior Manager, KPMG Trade and Customs
- Kevin Wilczynski, International Sales Manager, Pacific Northwest District, FedEx Services
- Andrew Holmes, General Manager, Northwest District, FedEx Trade Networks

Location: Harbor Club, The Norton Building, 801 Second Ave., 17th Floor, Seattle, WA 98104

Registration from 7:30-8:00 AM, program begins promptly at 8:00 AM, with continental breakfast served. For more information and to register, please visit the World Trade Club's website: www.worldtradeclub.net, or contact the WTC by email at : info@worldtradeclub.net, or by phone/fax at: (206) 686-3736.

Cost: $20 for World Trade Club member/$25 for non-members

Continuing Professional Education (CPE) credits will be granted for this event.

Co-sponsors include:

